

Let's read that verse...

Acts 27:23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

If you quickly jump into this verse You would think Paul meant he was worshipping that angel who is always walking with him, but if you read closely you will be noticed he never meant that... rather he worships the God of that angel.

For better understanding we can put that word like this.

For there stood by me this night the angel of God... Which God?...The God (of that angel) whom I serve.

Now read again that statement plainly you will grab the meaning...

Furthermore, we are advised to study the bible diligently, so we can understand the word the God wants us to understand. Because there also many other verses which are hard to understand unless we are willing to sit down and ask the Holy Spirit for the interpretation. By doing so the holy spirit surely help us with the correct interpretations, Did Paul truly worship the angel who he was walking with?

and therefore we will win Satan from misleading us.

he succeeded to mislead many people in wrong interpretations from canonizing drinking of alcohol to polygamy marriages in the church and even going further to idol worshipping.

May the grace of God help us.

Shalom.
