There is a Spirit accompanying Names, in Scripture we find many people were who changed their names, some at the beginning of the ministry or before the ministry began. Abraham was first called Abram (Genesis 17: 5), Sarai was changed to Sarah, Jacob was changed to Israel. It is therefore important to know the meaning of the names before you give the baby a name or before you give yourself a name.

Note: If you give a name to a child no matter how good a name is or how good its translation is, if the child is not raised in godliness, he/she will still be bad, and when he/she dies they will go to a burning hell.

Likewise, a child may have a bad name, but if they are brought up in the right way, that does not stop God from not using him/her, and his/her name still can exist in the book of Life.

Because the names in the book of life are not written according to their interpretation, but according to the deeds!! There will be many good names in the Lake of Fire, and there will also many who have no good names in Heaven.

And nurturing is not only takes her/him to church every Sunday, but also to teach them the ways of the Lord daily even at home! while you as a parent showing a godly example.

But all in all it is good to give a baby a good name which has a translation!
