

“Trust in Jesus whose works never cease.”

Blessed be the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The Word of God declares:

John 21:25 - “Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.”

If you are a careful reader of the Bible, you will realize that the four Gospels – Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John – share many similar accounts about the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. However, they also contain unique stories that are only found in one Gospel and not the others.

Unique Accounts in the Gospels

For example, the story of the Samaritan woman at the well, a deep and powerful encounter revealing Jesus’ heart for the marginalized, is only found in the Gospel of John (John 4:1-42). Had John not written his Gospel, we might have missed this incredible lesson on grace and truth.

Likewise, the raising of Lazarus from the dead, one of the most astonishing miracles of Jesus, is recorded only in John 11:1-44. No other Gospel mentions it.

Another miracle found only in Luke's Gospel is when Jesus raised the only son of a widow in the town of Nain:

Luke 7:11-17 - "Then he went up and touched the bier they were carrying him on, and the bearers stood still. He said, 'Young man, I say to you, get up!'"

The town was filled with awe and glorified God. This miracle displayed Christ's deep compassion and power over death.

Matthew, too, records an exclusive event: the resurrection of many saints after Jesus' death on the cross:

Matthew 27:51-53 - "...The tombs broke open and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. They came out of the tombs after Jesus' resurrection and went into the holy city and appeared to many people.”

If the Gospel of Matthew did not exist, this astonishing event would have been unknown to us.

An Overflow of Miracles Untold

The Gospels provide just a glimpse of Jesus’ work. Imagine if every apostle or eyewitness of Jesus’ ministry were given the opportunity to write down everything they saw and heard. The world could not contain the books.

As John wrote: “Even the world itself could not contain the books.”

(John 21:25)

Every second of Jesus’ ministry was filled with prophetic words and miraculous deeds. Even His earthly occupation as a carpenter may have been filled with extraordinary moments that were never recorded.

Think of Mary, His mother—had she written all she witnessed from His birth to His ascension, she might have authored volumes upon volumes.

Even Joseph, His earthly father, had he written down his own experiences with Jesus, what incredible revelations we might have received.

And consider Pilate's wife, who received a divine dream and warned her husband:

Matthew 27:19 - "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered much because of him today in a dream."

If she had written out the details of that dream, perhaps we would have even more insight into God's supernatural warnings and involvement.

What about the Roman guards at Jesus' tomb? They were eyewitnesses of the resurrection. If they had testified in writing, how much more would we know about that holy moment?

Even Now - He is Still Working

Even today, Jesus continues to work in the lives of His people. If each believer were to write down the miracles, transformations, and encounters they've experienced with Christ, billions of books would be written. He is still the same yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8).

So then, why would anyone not put their trust in this Jesus, who is full of endless works, mercy, and power?

Jesus - Above All Men in History

There has never been, nor will there ever be, a man who has impacted the world like Jesus Christ.

He is:

- The most written-about person in history

- The most spoken-of man on earth
- The only one whose influence grows more each day even 2,000 years after His earthly ministry

His story continues because He is alive.

Why You Should Trust Him

If you already trust in Jesus - be encouraged. Don't even think for a moment of seeking help elsewhere, especially from mere mortals whose entire lives can be summarized in a single book—or less.

Human beings are limited. Their stories are short, and their strength is finite. But Jesus?

He is the Author of Life (Acts 3:15)

He is a Strong Tower (Proverbs 18:10)

He is the Rock of Ages (Isaiah 26:4)

He is our Refuge and Strength (Psalm 46:1)

He is our Portion forever (Psalm 73:26)

If You Haven't Received Him Yet...

If you have not yet given your life to Jesus, you are in great danger. Time is short. The Bible says:

Hebrews 9:27 - "It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment."

You must repent and turn to Christ. He is ready to forgive—freely and completely.

Salvation is already paid for by His blood. All you need to do is repent, believe, and follow Him. He will take away the heavy burden of your sins and give you eternal hope.

Prayer of Commitment

If you would like to receive Jesus today, you can pray sincerely from your heart:

“Lord Jesus, I come to you. I acknowledge that I am a sinner in need of your grace. Forgive me, cleanse me, and make me new. I believe you died for my sins and rose again. I surrender my life to you. From today, I will follow you. Be my Lord and Savior. Amen.”
