

DREAMING THAT YOU'VE BEEN LEFT BEHIND BY A VEHICLE – WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Many people experience this type of dream, especially those who were once saved (born-again) but are now entangled in worldly matters or have completely fallen away from the faith. It often serves as a spiritual warning from God.

The dream may come in various forms: being left behind by a car, a bus, a plane, or by companions who were on a journey with you. However, the most common variation is dreaming of being left behind by a vehicle usually a bus.

A Testimony of a Troubling Dream

One man shared a dream his friend had that greatly disturbed him. In the dream, the friend was on a bus traveling somewhere. The bus stopped due to traffic, and seeing that it was idle, he decided to step off briefly. But unexpectedly, the bus started moving again. He ran after it and found many others men, women, and children also running after the same bus.

Eventually, with great effort, he caught up and boarded the bus. But when he got inside, his seat was already taken. He had to squeeze himself into another spot, only to be pushed away by an elderly man. He then saw an empty seat nearby and sat down, just before waking up.

DREAMING THAT YOU'VE BEEN LEFT BEHIND BY A VEHICLE – WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

The Interpretation

This dream was a spiritual revelation. The man had once accepted Christ and began the journey of salvation, but due to pressures and distractions of this world, he drifted away. God was revealing to him that he had left his spiritual position and was struggling to regain it.

Hebrews 10:38-39 (NKJV) says:

“Now the just shall live by faith; But if anyone draws back, My soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who draw back to perdition, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.”

James 4:4 (NIV) warns:

“You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world means enmity against God? Therefore, anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.”

The struggle to re-enter the bus and the seat being taken illustrates the danger of delaying repentance. It aligns with Luke 13:24 (NIV):

“Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to.”

Like Lot's Wife

Turning back to worldly pleasures is dangerous. The Bible gives the example of Lot's wife, who was warned to flee but looked back and was turned into a pillar of salt.

Luke 17:32 (NKJV) simply says:

“Remember Lot's wife.”

The implication is clear looking back or returning to a sinful life after knowing the truth is spiritually fatal.

If You've Had This Dream

If you have had such a dream, it may be a direct warning from God: you are losing your salvation. Continuing in this path of spiritual neglect or worldliness may cost you your eternal life.

Hebrews 2:3 (NKJV) asks:

“How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation...?”

And if you've never been saved at all if you've never surrendered your life to Jesus Christ this dream is a divine call to repentance. It shows how terrifying and tragic it will be to be left behind when the final journey begins.

Romans 6:23 (NKJV):

“For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal

DREAMING THAT YOU'VE BEEN LEFT BEHIND BY A VEHICLE – WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

The Call to Salvation

Jesus is calling you to begin a new journey with Him. This message is not a coincidence it's God speaking directly to you.

John 14:6 (NKJV):

“Jesus said to him, ‘I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.’”

Isaiah 35:8 (NIV) adds:

“And a highway will be there; it will be called the Way of Holiness; it will be for those who walk on that Way. The unclean will not journey on it; wicked fools will not go about on it.”

This world and all its pleasures will pass away. You may chase the things of the world endlessly, but in the end, your soul remains the most important part of you.

1 John 2:17 (NIV):

“The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God lives forever.”

What Must You Do?

If you feel the call to return to God, or to begin your journey of faith for the first time, pray this prayer sincerely, in faith:

PRAYER OF SALVATION

Heavenly Father, I come before You, acknowledging that I am a sinner and have fallen short of Your glory. I have walked in rebellion and deserve judgment. But I believe that You are a merciful God, slow to anger and rich in love.

I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, who died for my sins and rose again for my justification. I confess Him as my Lord and Savior. Wash me with His precious blood, cleanse me from all unrighteousness, and make me a new creation, beginning today and for all eternity.

Thank You, Lord Jesus, for receiving me and forgiving me. Amen.

Next Steps

If you have prayed that prayer with faith, now take the next step:

- Repent genuinely by turning away from all known sin.
- Find a Bible-believing, Spirit-filled church.
- Be baptized in water by immersion in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38).

- Begin studying the Word of God and walk daily in obedience and fellowship with other believers.

Philippians 1:6 (NIV) says:

“...He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.”

God bless you abundantly. Your journey has just begun.

Share on:
WhatsApp