

HE TOOK THE BLIND MAN BY THE HAND AND LED HIM OUT OF THE VILLAGE

Mark 8:23–26 recounts the story of Jesus healing a blind man in Bethsaida. Unlike many other miracles where Jesus healed people instantly and publicly, here He took the man by the hand and led him outside the village first.

“They came to Bethsaida, and some people brought a blind man and begged Jesus to touch him. He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. When He had spit on the man’s eyes and put His hands on him, Jesus asked, ‘Do you see anything?’ He looked up and said, ‘I see people; they look like trees walking around.’ Once more Jesus put His hands on the man’s eyes. Then his eyes were opened, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly. Jesus sent him home, saying, ‘Don’t even go into the village.’” (Mark 8:22–26, NIV)

Imagine yourself as this blind man: brought to a physician for healing, but instead of receiving immediate treatment, he takes you by the hand and leads you away—outside the familiar place, away from the voices of people, perhaps walking for miles into empty fields. Confusion and fear might set in, but this man obeyed. In his blindness, he trusted Jesus completely.

Once isolated from all distractions, Jesus touched him and began the healing process. Notice that the healing was gradual—first partial vision, then complete clarity. Why? Because Jesus wanted to teach a deeper truth. From his words—“I see people; they look like trees walking”—we know this man had once seen; he was not born blind. He had lost his sight at some point, and the environment in which he had been—Bethsaida—was linked to his spiritual condition. Hence, Jesus commanded him: “Do not even go back into the village.”

This mirrors what is happening spiritually today. The world blinds people’s spiritual eyes through its distractions, pleasures, and cares. They no longer perceive that these are the last days, that the Rapture is near, and that this world is decaying rapidly. Even when they hear the truth of the Gospel, it seems ordinary to them.

“And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel that displays the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.” (2 Corinthians 4:3-4, NIV)

For Jesus to open your eyes, you must be willing to let Him take you “outside the village.” This means separating yourself from the influences that caused spiritual blindness: worldly pleasures, ungodly fashion, immoral relationships, and the love of the world. Jesus said:

“Whoever wants to be My disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow Me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for Me will find it.”
(Matthew 16:24–25, NIV)

When you allow Him to lead you away, your spiritual vision will be restored, and you will clearly see the reality of the unseen world: the schemes of Satan, the nearness of the Rapture, and the eternal danger of hell. Then you will realize how blind you once were.

Beloved, perhaps you have heard this message many times—that we are living in the final days. Even if the Rapture does not occur in your lifetime, know that your earthly life is short. No one knows what tomorrow holds. Multitudes are dying daily, and if death finds you in spiritual blindness, there is no second chance.

If you are a believer and you understand that this is the era of the seventh and final church—the Church of Laodicea (Revelation 3:14-22)—and yet you treat your spiritual life lightly, it is a sign that the world has blinded your eyes. This is the age where the wheat and the tares have already been separated (Matthew 13:30). The lukewarm will be “vomited” out by Christ (Revelation 3:16). Vomit is detestable even to look at; how much more to consume? Do not wait until you are spat out—repent and seek the Lord now while there is still time (Isaiah 55:6-7).

Maranatha! The Lord is coming soon.

Please share this good news with others. If you would like to receive more of these teachings via email or WhatsApp, contact us at +255 789001312.

HE TOOK THE BLIND MAN BY THE HAND AND LED HIM OUT OF THE VILLAGE

Share on:
WhatsApp