In Scripture, the word “majesty” refers to a greatness that is supreme, glorious, and awe-inspiring—a beauty and authority that surpasses all earthly standards. Majesty is one of the communicable attributes of God’s glory—it reflects His divine kingship, holiness, and unmatched splendor.

Ultimately, true majesty belongs to God alone, and is most perfectly revealed in Jesus Christ, who is “the radiance of God’s glory” (Hebrews 1:3).

1. Majesty and God’s Sovereignty

Psalm 93:1–2

> “The Lord reigns, He is robed in majesty; the Lord is robed in majesty and armed with strength; indeed, the world is established, firm and secure. Your throne was established long ago; You are from all eternity.”

This passage shows that God’s majesty is linked to His rule and eternal nature. His throne is not temporary—it is eternal, firmly established before time began. In theology, this is part of the doctrine of God’s immutability—God never changes, and His reign is unshakable.

2. Majesty Dwells with God’s Presence

Psalm 96:6

> “Splendor and majesty are before Him; strength and glory are in His sanctuary.”

Here we see that wherever God is present, majesty is there too. This reflects—the manifest presence of God among His people. God’s presence is not casual; it is holy and majestic.

3. Creation Reflects His Majestic Nature

Psalm 104:1–2

> “Praise the Lord, my soul. Lord my God, You are very great; You are clothed with splendor and majesty. The Lord wraps Himself in light as with a garment; He stretches out the heavens like a tent.”

These verses echo God as Creator, whose majesty is seen in creation itself (Psalm 19:1). His light and glory are not just metaphorical—they represent His purity and transcendence.

4. Jesus Christ: The Embodiment of Divine Majesty

2 Corinthians 4:7

> “But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us.”

The “treasure” here refers to the gospel and the indwelling presence of Christ, revealing God’s majestic power working through weak human vessels. This is core to the doctrine of divine grace and human dependency—God displays His majesty even through our limitations.

5. Majesty in Salvation and Worship

Revelation 5:9

> “And they sang a new song, saying: ‘You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because You were slain, and with Your blood You purchased for God persons from every tribe and language and people and nation.’”

Christ’s redemptive work on the cross is the highest display of divine majesty. Through His sacrifice, He is exalted above all, fulfilling Philippians 2:9–11, where every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

Supporting Verses That Mention “Majesty”:

- 1 Chronicles 16:27 – “Splendor and majesty are before Him…”
- Psalm 21:5 – “Through the victories You gave, his glory is great; You have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.”
- Psalm 113:3 – “From the rising of the sun to the place where it sets, the name of the Lord is to be praised.”

- Psalm 148:13 – “Let them praise the name of the Lord, for His name alone is exalted; His splendor is above the earth and the heavens.”
- Psalm 29:4 – “The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is majestic.”

Only Jesus Christ is worthy of all majesty, glory, and honor. As believers, we do not possess majesty in ourselves—but we reflect God’s majesty when we live in obedience to Christ and proclaim His greatness.

Come, Lord Jesus!
