The word “concerning” or “about” . For example, if you want to say, “I don’t know anything about the second coming of Christ,” you could say, “I don’t know anything concerning the second coming of Christ.” So, concerning simply means “about” or “regarding.”

Interestingly, this specific word appears only twice in the entire Bible, both times in the book of Psalms.

Psalm 17:4–5

> “Concerning the works of men,
> By the word of Your lips I have kept myself from the paths of the destroyer.
> My steps have held fast to Your paths,
> My feet have not slipped.”

This passage expresses a believer’s commitment to live a holy and righteous life by God’s guidance. “Concerning the works of men” shows an awareness and careful separation from sinful ways, emphasizing personal holiness as commanded throughout

Scripture (see 1 Peter 1:15-16).

Psalm 87:5–6

> “Yes, of Zion it shall be said,
> ‘This one and that one were born in her’;
> And the Most High Himself shall establish her.
> The Lord will count when He registers the peoples,
> ‘This one was born there.’”

Here, “concerning Zion” speaks about God’s special relationship with His people and the establishment of His kingdom. Zion symbolizes the community of the faithful, a theme echoed in Hebrews 12:22-24, where Zion represents the heavenly Jerusalem.

Knowing what “concerning” means helps us understand how the Bible communicates about important subjects. When applied to doctrines like the second coming of Christ, knowing “concerning” or “about” this event is crucial for spiritual readiness.

The New Testament repeatedly urges believers to be watchful and prepared for Christ’s return (Matthew 24:42-44, 2 Peter 3:10-12). Ignorance about this vital truth can put a person in spiritual danger because the second coming is the culmination of God’s redemptive plan and final judgment (Revelation 22:12).

So, if you don’t know anything about the second coming of Christ, it’s urgent to seek understanding. Study God’s Word, pray for wisdom, and stay spiritually alert. We live in the last days, and Christ’s return is near (Hebrews 10:25). Are you ready to meet Him?
