

Did Lord Jesus ever marry or have a relationship with any woman?

Answer: No, Lord Jesus did not marry or have any relationships with anyone. He was born and lived a life without marriage in order to fulfill the will of His Father. Jesus' purpose on Earth was to carry out God's plan of salvation, and He remained focused on that mission. Above all, He never sinned, not even once — including the sin of lust, as stated in Hebrews 4:15:

“For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin.” (NIV)

In John 8:46, Jesus challenges His accusers:

“Which of you can convict me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?” (NIV)

This underscores His sinless nature, confirming that He was perfect and without any need for earthly relationships or desires that would lead to sin.

There are some who suggest that Jesus had a relationship with Mary Magdalene.

However, this theory is a false claim. It has been spread by those who wish to distort the truth about Jesus, in an effort to make Him seem like an ordinary man. This is a tactic of the enemy — Satan has always tried to undermine the divine nature of God's work to make it appear less significant. Theologically, this is a denial of the uniqueness and holiness of Christ. As stated in

1 Peter 1:19:

“But with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.” (NIV)

Jesus is not just an ordinary man but the spotless Lamb of God who came to redeem humanity.

Despite these false claims, the truth remains unshaken. The Holy Spirit is the one who works in the hearts of believers, revealing the truth of Christ. It is not about the influence of worldly words or rumors, but about the power of the Holy Spirit leading people to faith. As it is written in John 16:13:

“But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth.” (NIV)

So, whether the message of Christ is preached out of deceit or sincerity, God’s plan cannot be thwarted. Those who are destined to believe in Christ will hear the truth and respond in faith, as we see in

Philippians 1:18:

“What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.” (NIV)

Theologically, this passage emphasizes the sovereignty of God in using all circumstances for His glory, even if some preach Christ with wrong motives. It is the Holy Spirit that moves in the hearts of those chosen by God.

Those who are destined to believe in the Savior will come to faith, and once they believe, Satan cannot snatch them from Christ’s hands, as stated in

John 10:28-29:

"I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand." (NIV)
