

JESUS IS THE ONLY ONE WHO WILL THROW STONES — NOT US.
DO NOT JUDGE OTHERS UNRIGHTEOUSLY.

We live in a world where, the moment you stand up to preach against sin or call out wrongdoing, you are often accused of “judging others.” If you warn someone about the eternal consequences of sexual immorality — that their end is eternal separation from God — you will be challenged, “Who are you to judge me?”

I once spoke to a group defending homosexuality and told them plainly that practicing such sin leads to hell. They attacked me and cited the story of the woman caught in adultery. The Pharisees brought her to Jesus, hoping He would allow her to be stoned (John 8:1-11, ESV).

Instead, Jesus said,

“Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her.”

One by one, the accusers left, and Jesus was left alone with the woman.

They responded, “If they did not stone her, who are you to condemn us for what we do? Don’t you fear Jesus?”

I said, “I will not throw stones at you, but Jesus Himself will judge you on the day of reckoning.”

Many assume Christ will always remain a merciful Savior, endlessly patient and forgiving no matter what. They fail to understand that Jesus will one day stand as the righteous Judge, executing justice and punishing all unrighteousness (2 Corinthians 5:10, NIV). They wrongly think the Lord condones sin or is indifferent to it.

JESUS IS THE ONLY ONE WHO WILL THROW STONES — NOT US.
DO NOT JUDGE OTHERS UNRIGHTEOUSLY.

But the truth is this: If that woman caught in adultery had persisted in her sin, she would have avoided the stones of men that day — but she would not escape the judgment of Christ on the final day (Hebrews 9:27).

On Judgment Day, there will be no mercy shown to unrepentant sinners. It won't matter if you are young, old, rich, or poor. If you die in your sins, you will stand before the Judge and be condemned (Revelation 20:11-15).

Even before that day when Jesus returns to reign as King (Acts 1:11; Revelation 19:11-16), the entire world will mourn His coming because of the righteous wrath He will pour out on the rebellious (Revelation 1:7).

Isaiah prophesied:

“For the Lord will come with fire, and his chariots like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire will the Lord enter into judgment, and by his sword, with all flesh; and those slain by the Lord shall be many.” (Isaiah 66:15-16, ESV)

JESUS IS THE ONLY ONE WHO WILL THROW STONES — NOT US.
DO NOT JUDGE OTHERS UNRIGHTEOUSLY.

On that day, the unrepentant—adulterers, homosexuals, idolaters, drunkards, and all sinners—will wish the mountains would fall on them to hide from God’s wrath, but there will be no escape (Revelation 6:15-17).

Dear friend, you do not want to face this terrifying judgment. Even if you endure the fierce wrath of Christ, you will still have to give an account for every sinful deed before His throne (Romans 14:12). Then you will be cast into the lake of fire to perish forever (Matthew 25:41).

Understanding this truth should awaken us to how deeply God hates sin. Today you may sin openly — commit abortion, watch pornography, steal, drink excessively, worship idols — and it may seem like God does nothing. But do not be deceived. His patience is not everlasting, even beyond this life.

Hebrews warns:

“It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.” (Hebrews 10:31, ESV)

It is far better to surrender your life to Jesus now, while grace is still offered. The day is near when everything will change suddenly. The trumpet will sound, the saints will be caught up, and those left behind will face the terrifying wrath of God (1 Thessalonians 4:16-17).

JESUS IS THE ONLY ONE WHO WILL THROW STONES — NOT US.
DO NOT JUDGE OTHERS UNRIGHTEOUSLY.

Jesus said:

“And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.” (Matthew 10:28, ESV)

If you have not yet been saved, I urge you to begin your new life in Christ today. Repent sincerely by turning from sin, seek water baptism in the name of Jesus Christ, and receive forgiveness through His shed blood (Acts 2:38). After that, God will help you live a new life in Him.

There is no time to waste. Jesus could return at any moment.

If you want help accepting Jesus into your life, contact us at:
+255789001312 / +255693036618

Shalom.

Share on:
WhatsApp