
They Overcame Him by the Blood of the Lamb

A Foundational Teaching for New Believers — Part Three

If you have recently given your life to Jesus Christ, this teaching is especially important for you. It will help you understand how to walk victoriously in your new life of faith.

When you become born again, you immediately enter a spiritual battle. You have gained salvation, but you have also gained an enemy—the devil, who will do everything possible to make you doubt, backslide, or abandon your faith.

However, you have been given spiritual weapons that guarantee victory over him. One of the greatest of these is the blood of Jesus Christ.

Let us begin by reading from the book of Revelation:

Revelation 12:9-11 (KJV)

“And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.”

Notice, it does not say they overcame him by anointing oil, by church membership, or by loud prayers—but “by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony.”

That means the blood of Jesus and the believer’s confession of faith are the two most powerful spiritual weapons in the Christian life.

The Power of the Blood of Jesus Christ

The blood of Jesus accomplished three eternal works for every believer:

1. It removes sin
2. It speaks on our behalf
3. It conquers the power of Satan

Let us look at each one carefully.

1) The Blood Removes Sin

Hebrews 9:22 (NKJV)

“And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission.”

From the beginning, God established that forgiveness of sin could only come through the shedding of blood (see Leviticus 17:11). Under the Old Covenant, priests offered animal sacrifices year after year to atone for Israel's sins. But these sacrifices could never completely cleanse the conscience of the sinner—they only covered sin temporarily.

Hebrews 10:1-4 (NIV)

"The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship... It is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins."

The blood of animals could not erase guilt; it could only delay judgment. But when Jesus came, He offered Himself once for all as the perfect sacrifice.

Hebrews 10:10 (NKJV)

"By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all."

His blood was sinless, spotless, and eternal in power. Through His blood, we have complete forgiveness and cleansing.

1 John 1:7 (KJV)

“The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.”

Therefore, when you believe in Christ, your sins—past, present, and future—are forgiven. God does not remember them anymore.

Hebrews 8:12 (NIV)

“For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

Satan often tries to accuse new believers by reminding them of their past—failed relationships, abortions, corruption, witchcraft, or moral failures. But such accusations are powerless against the believer who understands the blood of Christ.

When the devil whispers, “You are still guilty,” you must boldly respond:

"I have been redeemed by the blood of Jesus. My sins are forgiven and forgotten forever!"

That confession is not arrogance—it is faith in God's Word. The moment you understand the full price Jesus paid for you, condemnation loses its grip, and you begin to walk in freedom.

Romans 8:1 (NKJV)

"There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus."

2) The Blood Speaks on Our Behalf

The blood of Jesus is not silent—it still speaks today.

Hebrews 12:24 (NIV)

“To Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.”

When Cain murdered his brother Abel, God said,

Genesis 4:10 (NKJV)

“The voice of your brother’s blood cries out to Me from the ground.” —

Abel’s blood cried out for vengeance and justice. But the blood of Jesus speaks better things—not vengeance, but mercy, grace, and redemption.

In the heavenly courts, the blood of Jesus continues to testify on your behalf before the Father:

“This one is forgiven.”

*This one is blessed.
This one is redeemed.
This one belongs to Me.”*

That is why the devil, who is called “the accuser of the brethren” (Revelation 12:10), can no longer condemn you. The blood has silenced his accusations.

*Romans 8:33–34 (NKJV)
“Who shall bring a charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies.
Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.”*

Therefore, live with the awareness that you are not alone. Jesus, your High Priest, is constantly interceding for you (Hebrews 7:25). His blood is your defense against every voice of accusation, guilt, or fear.

When Satan tries to fill your mind with anxiety or self-doubt, remember that there is a stronger voice—the voice of the blood—speaking better things on your behalf.

Psalm 27:1-3 (KJV)

*“The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.”*

This is why believers must continually affirm what the blood speaks. Confession activates its power. When you declare what God has said about you, the voice of the blood is magnified in your life.

3) The Blood Destroys the Power of Satan

Jesus' final words on the cross were:

“It is finished.” — John 19:30 (KJV)

He had completed the work of redemption. His death wasn't a defeat—it was the decisive victory over Satan and every demonic power.

The cross was the battlefield where Satan's authority was stripped and humanity's freedom was purchased.

Colossians 2:14-15 (NKJV)

"Having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it."

Through the blood of Jesus, every believer has been given authority to overcome the enemy.

Luke 10:18-19 (KJV)

"And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.”

The power of the blood of Christ makes the devil powerless over your life. Even if you feel spiritually young or weak, the authority of Jesus in you is far greater than all the forces of darkness combined.

1 John 4:4 (NKJV)

“You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.”

Therefore, do not fear witches, curses, or demonic attacks. Whatever comes against you—sickness, oppression, fear, or temptation—resist it boldly in the name of Jesus, and it will flee.

James 4:7 (NIV)

“Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.”

Remember, Satan is already defeated. The blood of Jesus is your spiritual shield and your victory banner. Stand in that truth, and you will never walk in defeat.

Always pray daily on the power of the blood of Jesus. Speak it, confess it, and thank God for it. When the enemy accuses you, answer with the Word of God. When he tempts you, overcome him with the blood.

Revelation 12:11 (NKJV)

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.”

The blood of Jesus is not just a doctrine—it is your defense, your covering, and your victory.

Walk in that confidence every day, and the peace of God will guard your heart and mind in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:7).

They Overcame Him by the Blood of the Lamb

May the Lord bless you, keep you, and strengthen you in the victory of His blood. Amen.
