Question: Why did God create us? What is the purpose of our existence? And why is one person created this way and another in a different way? In general, why did God create the world?

Answer:

God created us because of His own love and His own will—so that He would delight in being with us, and that we would delight in being with Him.

> Revelation 4:11
>
> “Worthy are you, our Lord and God,
>
> to receive glory and honor and power,
>
> for you created all things,
>
> and by your will they existed and were created.”

Our creation is a great advantage to us, because there is no benefit in not existing. Imagine you did not exist—or none of us existed. What benefit would that bring?

But if we exist and we are given eternal life and joy, then that is a great blessing!

And God Himself has promised us eternal life through His Son, Jesus Christ.

> John 3:16
> “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son,
> that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”

However, if a person refuses life—if he does not want life at all—then the only path that leads to loss is rejecting Jesus.

> 1 John 5:12

> “Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.”

Second Question: Why is one person created this way and another differently?

The simple answer:

Because that is what pleased God, so that we would be different from one another.

(He did not desire that we all look identical like ants.)

Beyond that, we cannot question Him further.

> Romans 9:20–21
>
> “But who are you, O man, to answer back to God?
>
> Will what is molded say to its molder, ‘Why have you made me like this?’

> Has the potter no right over the clay,
>
> to make out of the same lump one vessel for honorable use
> and another for dishonorable use?”

Regardless of how we were created, our responsibility is to seek eternal life. And it is important to understand that God shows no favoritism—no one is valued more than another.

Before Him, we are all equal:

not judged by appearance, or height, or age, or gender.

We are all equally loved and equally measured by His standard.
