

John 1:14

Do you truly understand what it means when the Bible says:

“And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us”? (John 1:14, ESV)

This verse expresses one of the most profound mysteries in all of Christian theology — the Incarnation: God, who is Spirit (John 4:24), took on human nature and entered into our world in the person of Jesus Christ.

□ An Analogy: Hearing a Voice vs. Seeing the Person

Think about this:

Have you ever spoken with someone on the phone? When you talk to them, you hear their voice — their words — but you don’t see them. Their presence is real, but invisible. All you have is their voice.

Now imagine that same person comes to visit you in person. This time, you still hear their words — but now they are coming from a visible body. You can look them in the eye, watch their expressions, and even touch them.

It’s the same voice, the same words, but now you can see and touch the one who is speaking.

That’s exactly what happened when the Word became flesh.

□ What (or Who) Is “The Word”?

In John 1:1-3, we read:

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

He was in the beginning with God.

All things were made through Him, and without Him was not anything made that was made.” (ESV)

The Word (Greek: Logos) here refers to the eternal Son of God — divine, co-equal with the Father, and the agent of all creation (cf. Colossians 1:16-17, Hebrews 1:2-3).

† The Word Became Flesh — The Incarnation

Then in John 1:14, Scripture tells us:

“And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen His glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.” (ESV)

This means that God the Son, without ceasing to be God, took on full human nature (Philippians 2:6-8), being born of the Virgin Mary (Luke 1:35), and lived among us — not as a spirit or phantom, but in a real human body (Hebrews 2:14-17).

This is not just a theological idea — it is the foundation of the Christian faith. Without the incarnation, there would be no redemption.

Jesus had to become truly human in order to die for our sins as a substitute (Hebrews 10:5-10).

□ The Mystery of Godliness — Explained by Paul

The Apostle Paul refers to this divine mystery in:

1 Timothy 3:16 —

“Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness:
He was manifested in the flesh,
vindicated by the Spirit,
seen by angels,
proclaimed among the nations,
believed on in the world,
taken up in glory.” (ESV)

Paul is clearly referring to Christ — God manifested in human form, glorified, and preached among the nations.

□ The Word Was Seen and Touched — Testimony of the Apostles

The Apostle John reaffirms this mystery in his letter:

1 John 1:1-2

“That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the Word of life — the life was made manifest, and we have seen it...” (ESV)

This was no vision or illusion. The apostles saw Jesus with their eyes and touched His body — even after His resurrection (Luke 24:39, John 20:27).

He was the eternal Word made tangible.

□ Fully God, Fully Man — One Person, Two Natures

Christian theology teaches that in the person of Jesus Christ, there is a hypostatic union:

- Fully God (Colossians 2:9 – “In Him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily”)

- Fully Man (Hebrews 2:17 – “He had to be made like His brothers in every respect”)

He is not half-God and half-man, but 100% God and 100% man — united in one Person, without confusion or separation.

□ Why Does This Matter?

Because only God could provide a perfect sacrifice for sin, and only a man could die in place of men.

“For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.” (1 Timothy 2:5, ESV)

Jesus — the Word made flesh — is the only bridge between sinful humanity and a holy God.

□ God With Us — Immanuel

“Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call His name Immanuel” (which means, God with us).
— Matthew 1:23 (ESV)

Jesus is not just a messenger from God. He is God — come to live among us, save us, and reveal the Father to us (John 14:9).

□ Have You Received Him?

John 1:12 says:

“But to all who did receive Him, who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God.”

There is no other name under heaven by which we can be saved (Acts 4:12).

There is no greater love than what Jesus showed on the cross (Romans 5:8).

And there is no other hope than the hope we have in Him (John 14:6).

♥ Jesus Never Fails

People will fail you. Even pastors and church leaders can fail you.
But Jesus? Never.

His love is pure, faithful, and unconditional.

"Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28)

So why not put your trust in Jesus today?
Receive Him. Believe His Word. Follow Him with your whole heart.

☐ May the Lord bless you richly.
