

An urgent message for preachers, teachers, and ministers of the Gospel

Isaiah 29:16 (NIV)

“You turn things upside down, as if the potter were thought to be like the clay! Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, ‘You did not make me’? Can the pot say to the potter, ‘You know nothing’?”

□ Theological Insight: This passage highlights human arrogance when people rebel against God’s authority. It’s a warning to all who try to reverse the order of divine truth—placing human will above God’s Word. Especially in ministry, we must never act like we know better than God, the Creator.

1. Do Not Distort the Gospel for Financial Gain

Titus 1:11 (NIV)

“They must be silenced, because they are disrupting whole households by teaching things they ought not to teach—and that for the sake of dishonest gain.”

□ Theological Insight: The early church faced a real threat from false teachers motivated by greed. Today, “prosperity gospel” distortions often resemble this. Preachers must examine whether their message serves God or their wallet.

If you preach for the sake of money—using false promises, manipulating the vulnerable, or exploiting those seeking God—you are not ministering, you’re merchandising the Gospel. And Scripture warns: God will deal with you.

2. Do Not Use the Gospel as a Cover for Sin

1 Corinthians 3:16 (NIV)

“Don’t you know that you yourselves are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in your midst?”

1 Corinthians 6:19 (NIV)

“Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own;”

□ Theological Insight: The human body is a sacred vessel—God’s dwelling place. When ministers engage in sexual immorality, they desecrate the temple of God. That’s not just sin; it’s spiritual sabotage.

If you preach holiness while living in sexual sin, you are twisting truth. This hypocrisy invites judgment, not blessing.

3. Do Not Turn the Church into a Marketplace

Matthew 21:12 (NIV)

“Jesus entered the temple courts and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves.”

□ Theological Insight: Jesus' righteous anger in the temple reflects God's view of commercializing worship. The modern equivalent? Turning church platforms into profit centers through manipulative fundraising, gimmicks, or business-minded ministry.

Just as Jesus overturned tables, He will overturn any system that prioritizes profit over purity.

4. Do Not Preach Half-Truths About Holiness

1 Thessalonians 5:23 (NIV)

“May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

□ Theological Insight: God cares about our entire being—body, soul, and spirit. Teaching that “God only looks at the heart” while ignoring outward holiness is not biblical; it's misleading.

True sanctification affects how we think, how we live, and even how we present ourselves. Any doctrine that downplays external conduct is an incomplete gospel.

Proverbs 22:12 (NIV)

“The eyes of the Lord keep watch over knowledge, but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.”

□ Theological Insight: God preserves truth and frustrates falsehood. If you twist the Word for personal gain, God Himself will oppose your ministry.

5. Do Not Preach That Christ's Return Is Far Off

2 Timothy 2:17-18 (NIV)

“Their teaching will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, who have departed from the truth. They say that the resurrection has already taken place, and they destroy the faith of some.”

□ Theological Insight: Hymenaeus and Philetus were guilty of “realized eschatology”—teaching that end-time events had already happened. Such distortions confuse believers and weaken their faith in Christ’s promised return.

Today, when some preachers say, “Jesus is not coming back any time soon” or “there’s no rapture,” they are echoing this heresy. Scripture is clear: We must live in readiness.

6. Better to Turn the World Upside Down with Truth Than Twist It for Self-Gain

Acts 17:6 (KJV)

“These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;”

□ Theological Insight: The apostles were accused of “turning the world upside down” because their message challenged sin, idolatry, and injustice. That’s the power of truth—it convicts, it confronts, and yes, it disrupts.

If your preaching comforts the comfortable but fails to convict the sinner, you may be preaching a twisted Gospel.

7. A Day of Divine Overturning Is Coming

Ezekiel 21:27 (KJV)

“I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.”

□ Theological Insight: This verse points to a divine shaking—a removal of corrupt power structures in preparation for the coming of Christ, the rightful King.

Haggai 2:22 (NIV)

“I will overturn royal thrones and shatter the power of the foreign kingdoms. I will overthrow chariots and their drivers; horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother.”

□ Theological Insight: God will disrupt earthly systems to establish His eternal kingdom. Those who twist the truth will not stand in that day.

Deuteronomy 29:23 (NIV)

“The whole land will be a burning waste of salt and sulfur—nothing planted, nothing sprouting, no vegetation growing on it. It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah...”

□ Theological Insight: Just as God overthrew wicked cities in judgment, He will again act decisively against nations and individuals who resist His truth.

FINAL EXHORTATION

Do not twist what is straight. Instead, confront and correct what is crooked—with love, truth, and humility.

Galatians 1:6-8 (NIV)

“I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you to live in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel— which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel of Christ.”

☐ May the Lord give you boldness to preach the truth, integrity to live it, and discernment to reject every distortion.

☐ Share this message with others. Let the truth be known.

Share on:
WhatsApp