Answer: Let’s refer to the Scripture…

> Deuteronomy 32:25
>
> “Outdoors the sword shall bereave, and indoors terror, for young man and woman alike, the nursing child with the man of gray hairs.”

The word “Innihilate” means to destroy or to bring to ruin. Therefore, in this verse, it carries the same sense as “to destroy” or “to cause someone’s death.” The implication is that it speaks of a tragic loss of life often that of an important or beloved person within a household.

Thus, the verse can also be understood as:

“Outdoors the sword shall destroy, and indoors there shall be terror; it will destroy the young man and the young woman, the nursing infant together with the elderly.”
