
In the Bible, the word kuseta refers to completely destroying something—whether by crushing, trampling, or breaking it into pieces. The term signifies a total defeat and eradication of the enemy or evil.

Let’s look at some Scripture passages that use this concept:

Romans 16:19-20 (NIV)

19 Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I rejoice because of you; but I want you to be wise about what is good, and innocent about what is evil.

20 The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.

Here, Paul encourages believers to live wisely and to avoid evil. The promise that “God of peace will crush Satan under your feet” shows that the ultimate victory over evil is assured through God’s power. The phrase “under your feet” is symbolic of complete triumph and dominion, reminiscent of the Old Testament imagery where enemies are defeated and trampled (Genesis 3:15).

Theologically, this passage teaches that the believer’s victory over Satan is not by personal strength but through obedience to God’s will and separation from evil. When we walk in righteousness, God Himself will bring about the destruction of the enemy.

Psalm 110:5 (NIV)

5 The Lord is at your right hand; he will crush kings on the day of his wrath.

This verse emphasizes God’s righteous judgment against the wicked, including rulers who oppose Him. The “crushing” indicates God’s power to utterly defeat and judge evil powers, showing that no earthly authority stands against God’s ultimate sovereignty.

Theological Insights:

- Kuseta as Total Destruction: The word conveys more than just damage; it implies absolute defeat and ruin. God’s promise to “crush” or “destroy” Satan reflects His sovereignty and the final judgment that awaits evil.
- Victory Through Holiness: The passage in Romans links obedience and wisdom to victory. The Christian life is a call to holiness and separation from sin, which is the key to overcoming spiritual enemies.

- Christ’s Role: Jesus Christ is central to this victory. It is through His death and resurrection that Satan’s power is broken (Hebrews 2:14). Believers participate in this victory by faith and obedience.

Final Thoughts

In summary, kuseta means to utterly destroy. God’s plan is to bring total defeat to Satan, not to harm us. Our responsibility is to live according to God’s will, walking away from sin and embracing His salvation.

If you haven’t yet accepted Jesus Christ as your Savior, today is the perfect time. By trusting Him, you join in this victory over evil.
