

1. 1 Corinthians 2:1-4 (ESV)

“I have come to you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, and I have shared with you the gospel because I felt that I ought to, though I have much to regret. I came to you without wisdom or eloquence, without fine words or human wisdom, lest the cross of Christ should be emptied of meaning. I came to you only with the message that I had learned: that Jesus died for our sins so that we might be called to the gospel of the grace of God. I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, and I shared with you the gospel because I felt that I ought to, though I have much to regret.”
