

Matthew 5:1-2 (NIV):

“Jesus went down to the boat with his disciples, and a large crowd followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and as far as Tyre and Sidon. He then said to the crowd, ‘Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who are weeping now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you who are hated and persecuted and who are despised by all men because of the Son of Man. Blessed are you who are merciful, for you will be mercied. Blessed are you who are kind, for you will be kind. Blessed are you who are pure in heart, for you will see God. Blessed are you who are peace-loving, for you will be called children of God. Blessed are you who are persecuted for doing good, for the kingdom of heaven is yours. Blessed are you who are persecuted because of Jesus the Son of Man, for you will be with him in heaven and you will inherit the kingdom. Blessed are you who are persecuted because of the Son of Man, for you will be with him in heaven and you will inherit the kingdom.’”
