

Matthew 22:8 (NKJV):

“But when he began to go out, he said to the slaves, ‘Behold, I am going out, and you do not know the day or the hour of my coming. Therefore, be on the alert, for you do not know the day of my coming.’”

When Jesus said this, he was talking about the day of his return. He was warning his disciples and the church that they should always be ready for his coming. He said, “Behold, I am going out, and you do not know the day or the hour of my coming. Therefore, be on the alert, for you do not know the day of my coming.” This is a warning to us as well. We should always be ready for his coming, because we do not know the day or the hour of his return.

What does this mean for us today? How should we live our lives in light of this warning?

1. Matthew 22:8 (NKJV):

Matthew 7:24-27 Jesus said, “Therefore, everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. But everyone who hears these words of mine and does them, will be like a wise man who built his house on rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, but it did not fall, for it was founded on rock.”
