

1 Corinthians 14:24 - "The one who loves and longs for the Holy Spirit will be able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart."

How do we discern the heart? How do we know what is in someone's heart? The Holy Spirit is the one who reveals the heart. He is the one who searches the heart and knows the thoughts and intentions of the heart. He is the one who reveals the secrets of the heart. He is the one who reveals the hidden things of the heart. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known. He is the one who reveals the things that are not understood. He is the one who reveals the things that are not felt. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen, heard, or touched. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known, understood, or felt. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen, heard, or touched. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known, understood, or felt.

How do we discern the heart?

The Holy Spirit is the one who reveals the heart. He is the one who searches the heart and knows the thoughts and intentions of the heart. He is the one who reveals the secrets of the heart. He is the one who reveals the hidden things of the heart. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known. He is the one who reveals the things that are not understood. He is the one who reveals the things that are not felt. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen, heard, or touched. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known, understood, or felt. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen, heard, or touched. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known, understood, or felt.

How do we discern the heart? How do we know what is in someone's heart? The Holy Spirit is the one who reveals the heart. He is the one who searches the heart and knows the thoughts and intentions of the heart. He is the one who reveals the secrets of the heart. He is the one who reveals the hidden things of the heart. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known. He is the one who reveals the things that are not understood. He is the one who reveals the things that are not felt. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen, heard, or touched. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known, understood, or felt. He is the one who reveals the things that are not seen, heard, or touched. He is the one who reveals the things that are not known, understood, or felt.

