Wingulama Shahidi - A Guide to the Holy Bible. The Holy Bible is a collection of sacred texts that are central to the faith of Christians. It is divided into two main parts: the Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament contains the laws and stories of the Hebrew people, while the New Testament contains the teachings and life of Jesus Christ. The Bible is a source of inspiration and guidance for millions of people around the world.

Matthew 3:2-3 (New International Version)

John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." This is what Isaiah the prophet had said when he prophesied, "A voice of one calling in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths in the desert.'" (Matthew 3:2-3)

Introduction

The Bible is a collection of sacred texts that have guided millions of people for centuries. It is a source of wisdom, inspiration, and moral guidance. The Bible is divided into two main parts: the Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament contains the laws and stories of the Hebrew people, while the New Testament contains the life and teachings of Jesus Christ and the early church.

Matthew 4:10 (New International Version)

Jesus said to him, "Do not be afraid, for I am with you and will protect you. Do not be afraid, for I am with you and will protect you. Do not be afraid, for I am with you and will protect you."

Conclusion

The Bible is a treasure trove of wisdom and truth. It is a book that has stood the test of time and continues to inspire and guide people today. We encourage you to read the Bible regularly and to seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
