(Matthew 25:14-30)

“A man was going on a journey, and he called his servants and entrusted his money to them. To one he gave five pounds, to another two, and to a third one, according to their abilities. Then he went away. After some time, the servants came back, and the lord said to them, ‘Bring me back what you have earned.’” (Matthew 25:14-30)
