“The Holy Spirit is the one who leads us into all truth; he will not speak on his own authority, but only what he hears, and he will tell us what is to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. He will receive from the Father and from me and will declare it to you.”
(John 16:13-15)

The Holy Spirit is the one who leads us into all truth; he will not speak on his own authority, but only what he hears, and he will tell us what is to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. He will receive from the Father and from me and will declare it to you.

5. The Holy Spirit's Work

The Holy Spirit is the one who leads us into all truth; he will not speak on his own authority, but only what he hears, and he will tell us what is to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. He will receive from the Father and from me and will declare it to you.
