1 Corinthians 6:8: For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious.

1 Corinthians 6:8? For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious.

For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious. For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious. For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious.

For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious. For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious.

For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious.

1 Corinthians 13:24-30 For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious. For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious. For those who are of the world, the world is their god, and they are proud, and they are angry, and they are jealous, and they are contentious, and they are malicious.
