

1 Corinthians 8:11

“If you know that someone is weak because of their conscience, if you eat meat, don't eat it as if you are free, but as if you are bound. For the kingdom of God is not about eating and drinking, but about righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. If you cause someone to stumble because of your freedom, you are not loving your neighbor. Love never causes someone to stumble.”

“If you know that someone is weak because of their conscience, if you eat meat, don't eat it as if you are free, but as if you are bound. For the kingdom of God is not about eating and drinking, but about righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. If you cause someone to stumble because of your freedom, you are not loving your neighbor. Love never causes someone to stumble.”

1 Corinthians 11:4

“When you worship, your head should be covered, just as the church is covered by Christ, who is the head of the church, his body, which is the church, which he himself cleanses with water by the word of the cross, so that he can present the church to himself in glory, without any stain or wrinkle or anything of the kind, but that she is holy and blameless.”

“When you worship, your head should be covered, just as the church is covered by Christ, who is the head of the church, his body, which is the church, which he himself cleanses with water by the word of the cross, so that he can present the church to himself in glory, without any stain or wrinkle or anything of the kind, but that she is holy and blameless.”

“When you worship, your head should be covered, just as the church is covered by Christ, who is the head of the church, his body, which is the church, which he himself cleanses with water by the word of the cross, so that he can present the church to himself in glory, without any stain or wrinkle or anything of the kind, but that she is holy and blameless.”

Share on:
WhatsApp

Print this post