

“...the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit, because what counts is love, kindness and good faith towards one another. The Lord Jesus Christ has died for us, so that he might bring us to himself and purify us to himself by the word of his grace, so that we might present ourselves as holy vessels, obedient to God, and that we might be transformed by the renewing of our minds, so that we may be able to discern what the will of God is, that we may be able to do what is good, pleasing and perfect in his will.”
