Matthew 6:33 (NKJV):

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. - This verse is a key principle in the Sermon on the Mount. It teaches that our primary focus should be on God's kingdom and His righteousness, rather than on material concerns. When we prioritize God, He will take care of our needs.

Matthew 6:33 (NKJV)

Matthew 15:7 (NKJV):

Why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of tradition? For you say, 'We do not defile ourselves by eating and drinking with unwashed hands, for we must keep the tradition of the elders.' This is an example of how human traditions can be used to circumvent God's commands. Jesus criticizes the Pharisees for prioritizing their traditions over God's law.
