Matthew 35:14-15

“The kingdom of heaven is like a man who went away to travel and left his servants in charge of his property. He gave one to five minas, another to two, and a third to one, according to their abilities. Then he went away. The servant who received five minas went and traded and gained five more minas. The servant who received two minas also gained two more minas. The servant who received one mina went and hid it in the ground. When the master returned, he called the servants and asked them, ‘Where are you, my faithful servants? Why have you not brought back my money with interest?’ The servant with five minas answered, ‘I was afraid, sir, because you are a hard man. You reap what you sow. I hid your mina in the ground, and here it is, with interest.’ The master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful over a little, I will put you in charge of much more. Go and receive your reward.’ Then he said to the servant with two minas, ‘You also are a good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little, I will put you in charge of much more. Go and receive your reward.’ Then he said to the servant with one mina, ‘You wicked and lazy servant! Why did you not deposit my money with the bankers so that I could have received it with interest? Instead, you hid my money in the ground, and you lost it. I will punish you for your laziness. Take away your mina, and give it to the one with five minas. For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. And finally, that wicked servant, he is being thrown out. He is being thrown into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”
