

Matthew 10:37 (ESV)

“Whoever loves his father or mother more than me, cannot be my disciple.”

Matthew 10:37 (ESV) is a verse that speaks to the heart of discipleship. It is a statement that Jesus made to his twelve apostles, and it is a statement that is still relevant today. In this verse, Jesus is telling us that if we love our father or mother more than him, we cannot be his disciples. This is a powerful statement, and it is one that we should all take to heart. It is a statement that challenges us to put God first in our lives, and it is a statement that reminds us that our relationship with God is more important than any other relationship we have.
