

Matthew 10:37 (ESV)

“Whoever loves his father or mother more than me, cannot be my disciple.”

Matthew 10:37 (ESV) is a verse that speaks to the heart of discipleship. It is a statement that Jesus made to his twelve apostles, and it is a statement that is still relevant today. It is a statement that challenges us to examine our hearts and to see if we are truly committed to following Jesus. It is a statement that reminds us that our love for God and for others must be our primary motivation for following Him.
