“...and I will be with you and will love you, just as the Father has loved me, so that I may bring you to him. He who has loved me from before the world began, he also loves me now, and he himself will love me, and will bring me to himself.” (John 17:23-24)

John 13:34-35

“I leave you with this command: Love one another as I have loved you, so that you also will love one another. The love that I have for the Father is that he has loved me from before the world began. He who has loved me from before the world began, he also loves me now, and he himself will love me, and will bring me to himself.”
