Matthew 8:13 (ERV-HI):

“Jesus said to the man, ‘Your faith has made you well.’ Then he touched the man’s hand, and he got up and went home.”

Jesus said to the man, ‘Your faith has made you well.’ Then he touched the man’s hand, and he got up and went home. This is a powerful statement about the power of faith. It shows that Jesus has the authority to heal people and that faith is a key to receiving that healing. The man’s faith was so strong that it made him well, and Jesus responded by touching his hand and sending him home. This is a beautiful example of how faith can overcome even the most difficult of ailments.
