

The Holy Bible is a collection of sacred texts that are central to the faith of Christians. It is divided into two main parts: the Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament contains the laws and stories of the Hebrew people, while the New Testament tells the story of Jesus Christ and the early church. The Bible is a source of wisdom and guidance for millions of people around the world.

Matthew 32:9-10 (ERV):

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the world, but war. For I have come to bring a sword, not a sword, but a sword. For I have come to bring a sword, not a sword, but a sword; for I have come to bring a sword, not a sword, but a sword.”
