

Matthew 6:23 (ERV / English Revised Version):

“If you lay up treasure for yourself, and not for God, your heart will be divided between God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure.”

When you lay up treasure for yourself, and not for God, your heart will be divided between God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure.

You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure.

You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure.

You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure.

You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure. You cannot serve both God and your treasure.
